i2 Expands Federal and State Government Distribution Channel with Carahsoft Partnership

Carahsoft to Resell i2's Analysis and COPLINK Product Lines to Public Sector Agencies including Defense, Intelligence Community, Civilian Agencies and Law Enforcement

McLEAN and RESTON, Virginia -- August 31, 2010 -- Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, and i2, Inc., the leading provider of intelligence and investigation software, announced today a partnership that will provide federal and state government customers with an additional channel to purchase i2's analysis and investigative solutions used by thousands of analysts across defense, civilian, intelligence and law enforcement agencies.

"Our customers require multiple options when procuring software that will help them achieve their missions quickly and cost effectively," said Bill Donellan, Vice President, Americas, at i2. "As an authorized reseller for i2 in the federal and state marketplaces, Carahsoft helps simplify the procurement process for customers and extends i2's market penetration."

Complementing i2's existing GSA schedule, Carahsoft will resell i2's Analysis and COPLINK product lines to the government marketplace.

"i2's software provides our extensive network of reseller partners and our government customers with sophisticated visual analysis, data searching and collaboration tools," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft president. "These proven technologies and expertise equip government agencies with unique end-to-end solutions to investigate, predict, disrupt and defeat criminal and terrorist activities."

On Sept. 2, both companies will host a webinar, Analyze the Who, What, When, and Now the "Where" with Analyst's Notebook Esri® Edition, a new solution that gives defense, national security and law enforcement personnel unprecedented analysis and intelligence capabilities better arming them for current and future counterinsurgency (COIN), anti-terrorism and public safety operations.
