Carahsoft Awarded General Services Administration Blanket Purchase Agreement for IaaS Solutions

Multi-Year Contract Speeds Federal Access to IaaS Solutions Via Apps.Gov

Reston, VA -- July 1, 2011 -- Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, today announced that it has been awarded a General Services Administration Blanket Purchase Agreement to supply Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS) offerings to the federal marketplace via Apps.Gov, the government's cloud-based services storefront.

Carahsoft is one of 12 vendors selected to participate in the five-year, government-wide contract. The BPA enables the companies included to provide government entities with pre-approved, federally compliant cloud storage, virtual machines, and web hosting services to support a continued expansion of governments' IT capabilities into cloud computing environments.

"We are honored to have been chosen to participate in this innovative GSA program which will facilitate the government's move to the cloud," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft president. "This is an important contract vehicle for us as we are aligned with numerous strategic partners whose cloud computing applications are already being implemented successfully by government agencies."
