

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DORADO SOFTWARE AND CARAHSOFT TEAM TO PROVIDE GOVERNMENT WITH CONSOLIDATED RESOURCE MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS

Redcell Product Suite Awarded to Carahsoft GSA Schedule

FOLSOM, CA – December 17, 2008 – Dorado Software, a leading provider of infrastructure lifecycle management software, today announced a partnership with Carahsoft Technology Corp., a trusted government IT solutions provider. Under the agreement, Carahsoft will hold the GSA Schedule for all Dorado Software Redcell 6.x enterprise products and will provide proactive sales and marketing support to drive demand for the products within the public sector marketplace.

“The Redcell enterprise suite is an ideal complement to our solutions for systems management and offers our customers complete visibility across the entire stack of infrastructure products,” said Craig P. Abod, president of Carahsoft Technology Corp. “Redcell lets our customers consolidate their IT infrastructure management and automate IT operations, and is extremely cost competitive. We continue to expand our solutions to simplify our customers’ management environment, and we are pleased to include Dorado’s Redcell in our capabilities.”

Dorado Software's Redcell™ product suite provides uniform access, configuration, and monitoring of multi-vendor IT infrastructure assets, including storage, systems, security and networking devices and services. As a result, companies can automate IT operations, simplify troubleshooting and reporting, and proactively monitor their converged IT infrastructure and services.

“Our customers are looking to maximize their current infrastructure and increase network operational efficiencies while reducing management and software maintenance costs,” said Rex White, Vice President of Channel Sales at Dorado Software. “We are very pleased to be working with the experts in the public sector marketplace. Carahsoft’s GSA schedule and technology offerings, including Symantec and Altiris, complement Redcell’s offerings and make this a natural partnership. We look forward to working with Carahsoft to help government agencies reduce operational and management costs.”

All Dorado Redcell products are available on Carahsoft GSA Schedule number GS-35F-0131R. For more information, contact Carahsoft at 888-662-2724 or sales@carahsoft.com.
