

IQM2 and Carahsoft Partner to Help Agencies Streamline Formal Meeting Processes

Innovative Meeting Management Software Added to Carahsoft's GSA Schedule

NEW YORK, NY, January 15, 2009 – IQM2, Inc., today announced that its M2 Suite of intelligent meeting software will now be available on the GSA Schedule through Carahsoft Technology Corp., a leading government IT solutions provider. Already in use in numerous state and local government agencies including Hernando County, FL, Valley Transportation Authority in CA and Southampton, NY, the software streamlines the onerous processes associated with conducting formal/public meetings and managing post-event follow-up, thus enabling agencies to be more efficient, open, collaborative and cost effective.

Through the partnership, Carahsoft will leverage its expertise within the federal, state and local government market to increase demand for IQM2's software in municipalities throughout the United States. In addition to carrying the product on its GSA schedule, Carahsoft is also adding the product to several of its state contract vehicles including California and Ohio.

IQM2, Inc.'s M2 Suite of meeting management information software tools automate and streamline formal and public meeting processes. While this automation translates to significant time and cost savings, it also ensures the integrity and accuracy of data, facilitates compliance, reduces risk and ensures follow through on the critical decisions made during the meeting process.

"The M2 Suite has proven to be a powerful tool," said Daryl Blowes, CEO of IQM2. "Carahsoft's proactive sales and marketing programs, professional business practices and stellar reputation will enhance our efforts as we continue to help the public sector save time and money through the application of our meeting management software."

"We are pleased to add IQM2's product suite to our GSA schedule and to our portfolio of Software as a Service partners," said Craig P. Abod, president of Carahsoft. "The company's innovative meeting management solution enables government agencies which host formal meetings to communicate and collaborate with all of their constituencies in an efficient, transparent manner."
