Carahsoft Named One of Washington DC's Largest Private Companies Ranks #18 on Washington Business Journal's 100 Largest Companies List for 2010

RESTON, VA, July 6, 2010 - Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, today announced that it has been ranked #18 on the Washington Business Journal's list of the Top 100 Largest Private Companies in the Washington DC region based on 2009 revenue. It is the fourth consecutive year Carahsoft has earned this recognition.

Carahsoft made its first appearance at #89 on this prestigious list, just two years after the company was founded based on 2006 revenue of $91.9 million. In 2009, the company posted $585.9 million in revenue, an increase of more than 69 percent over 2008, and a rate that positioned Carahsoft as the fastest growing company on the list.

"We're very pleased that the government's demand for our IT products and services continues to grow exponentially," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft president. "That demand, along with our proven business model, excellent technology partners, and dedicated team members, has enabled us to achieve incredible results in just a short period of time and provides the opportunity for continued double-digit increases in the future."

The Top 100 Largest Private Companies list was published in the July 2-8, 2010 issue of the Washington Business Journal. To download the complete list, click here.
