Carahsoft Named VMware Partner Network Global Award Winner

RESTON, VA, February 10, 2010 - Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, announced that it received a VMware Partner Network global award during the VMware Partner Exchange 2010 held today in Las Vegas.

"VMware's partners continue to be the bedrock of our business, and we are pleased to recognize the great work they have accomplished throughout the year," said Doug Smith, senior director, global partner sales, VMware. "We congratulate this year's winners, and we look forward to continuing our work with partners to help them deliver virtualization solutions for customers building private cloud infrastructures."

Awards were presented in 15 categories and acknowledged key performances and outstanding achievements in 2009 by members of VMware's partner ecosystem which now encompasses more than 25,000 partners. Carahsoft was named Partner of the Year for SpringSource, a leader in enterprise and web application development and management which was recently acquired by VMware.

"We take great pride in being recognized at a global level by VMware and are honored to be included among VMware's top-performing partners," said Craig P. Abod, president of Carahsoft, which also serves as VMware master government aggregator/distributor. "We look forward to supporting VMware's public sector partners and resellers with our unparalleled commitment to providing responsive, comprehensive marketing and sales support."
