Vizioncore Announces Partnership with Carahsoft Technology Corp.
Partnership reinforces Vizioncore's commitment to deliver virtualization solutions to governmental organizations

CHICAGO, IL – October 2, 2007– Vizioncore, Inc. announced today that it has entered into a partnership with Carahsoft Technology Corp., a government-focused information technology provider.

Under this agreement, Carahsoft will serve as master GSA schedule holder for Vizioncore's best-of-breed software that helps organizations safeguard and optimize their virtualized environments. This partnership will allow customers to extract the maximum return on their investment in the VMware platform. Vizioncore, Inc. is a VMware Community Source member and Technical Alliance Partner, and Carahsoft acts as master GSA schedule holder for VMware.

"An increasing number of government agencies are turning to virtualization to improve many areas in IT that have been long-standing concerns," said Chris Akerberg, VP of Global Sales & Marketing at Vizioncore. "Leading IT companies, such as Carahsoft, succeed by assisting their clients to select the best possible solution at the best possible value. We believe that Vizioncore's product line demonstrates the breadth of functionality, quality and affordability that makes us the natural choice for Carahsoft when delivering powerful and proven virtual infrastructure solutions to their clients."

"We are very pleased to leverage Vizioncore's successful and proven flagship technology with our customers," said Craig P. Abod, president of Carahsoft. "Carahsoft teams with industry leading companies to jointly develop solutions that provide value and cost savings to our customers. Through our partnership with Vizioncore, we will lead the way in helping virtualization customers solve "real world" problems with intelligent software."

About Carahsoft
