Carahsoft Honored as Fast-Growth Company by Fairfax County Economic Development Authority (FCEDA)

Award Presented at 2009 Celebration of Northern Virginia Business Success

Reston, VA--January 27, 2009 - Carahsoft Technology Corp., a leading government IT solutions provider, was honored as one of the Northern Virginia's top-performing companies at the Fairfax County Economic Development Authority's 2009 Celebration of Northern Virginia Business Success.

Companies recognized at the annual event are among the largest in their industry category and have grown quickly in the last several years, as determined by the Washington Business Journal and the Emerging Business Forum. Recipients are from the city of Alexandria and the counties of Arlington, Fairfax and Loudoun.

"Carahsoft is honored to be recognized for our success in our market and for our contribution to the regional economy," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft President. "In less than five years, we have grown into a $300 million company. With the continued support of our technology partners, government customers, and team members, we look forward to many more years of growth here in Northern Virginia."
