Carahsoft Ranked in Top 500 Technology Integrators by Everything Channel for Sixth Consecutive Year
Moves Up to #31 on 2011 VAR500

Reston, VA - June 27, 2011 - Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, today announced that it has been recognized for the sixth consecutive year by Everything Channel as one of North America's top technology integrators. Named to the prestigious VAR500 list, Carahsoft placed #31 based on its 2010 revenue of $834.5 million, rising from its 2010 position at #99.

"We are pleased to rank among the nation's top performing IT solutions providers for the sixth year running," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft president. "From our debut on the list at #399 in 2006 to our 2011 ranking at #31, the list has documented our momentum in the industry and stands as testimony to the quality of the sales, marketing and contract expertise we to provide to our vendor and reseller partners and to our public sector customers."

Featuring the highest producing technology integrators and solution provider organizations in the IT channel, the VAR500 lists the largest value-added resellers, solution providers and integrators in North America by revenue size. Rankings consider earnings from hardware sales, software sales and managed IT services sold over the course of 2010.

"Vendors of all sizes rely heavily on the VAR500 list to find those solution providers best suited to sell their products," said Kelley Damore, VP, Editorial Director, Everything Channel. "VAR500 honorees are considered trusted business advisors, integration experts, and invaluable partners. More importantly, they solve customers' biggest IT business problems through product integration, training, consulting and services."

Currently in its eighth year of business, Carahsoft's annual revenue is approaching one billion dollars and it employs more than 225 people, with plans to hire an additional 100 employees in 2011. The company serves as the Master Government Partner and Distributor for the industry's leading software brands, and is ranked among the top 100 Government IT contractors in the nation.
