RESTON, VA, September 15, 2009 - Carahsoft Technology Corp., the trusted government IT solutions provider, today announced that it has been named to the 2009 Washington Technology Fast 50 list of the fastest growing government IT companies in the Washington D.C. area.

With 2008 government revenue of more than $347 million, Carahsoft was the top revenue producer on this year's list and ranked fourth on the list based on a five-year compound annual growth rate of 217%. Carahsoft's revenue has grown from $3.4 million in 2004 to $347.5 million in 2008, an increase equivalent to the combined revenue gains posted by the other nine top ten companies on the list.

To be eligible for the Fast 50, companies must be based or have sales offices in the Greater D.C. area and must meet the government criteria for small business or be a member of the 8(a) program. Selection is based on percentage growth of government revenue over a period of five years.

"We're honored to be included on the Washington Technology Fast 50 list," said Craig P. Abod, Carahsoft president. "To be included on this prestigious list in our first year of eligibility is particularly rewarding and clearly indicative of the high quality sales and marketing support we provide to our technology partners and our government customers."
